

Watch Me Fall Apart

Hard-Fi

You dumb ass fool, you lost it all
You had your chance but moved too slow
Now look around this lonely town
Where every smiling face just brings you down
Just brings you down You let it slip, so get a grip
There's no one else to blame for this
Now walk around this lonely town
Where every smiling face just brings you down
Just brings you down Stick around and watch me fall apart
Watch me lose the game that I made up
Stick around whilst I default the loan
Watch me reap the pain that I have sown I wanted all, all I could take
I wanted everything my way
Thought I can't lose, thought I was smart
But then that girl turned 'round and broke my heart
And broke my heart Stick around and watch me fall apart
Watch me lose the game that I made up
Stick around whilst I default the loan
Watch me reap the pain that I have sown Stick around and watch me fall apart
Watch me fall apart, watch me fall apart
Stick around whilst I default the loan
Watch me reap the pain that I have sown
