The Gambler

Thea Gilmore

Roll that dice again, again
And once or twice youll reel me in What Ive got is not what I came for
But Ill keep coming back for moreCome on lay your head upon my chest
The odds are slim but isnt that the test
In this game you either bend or break
And I dont know what kind of mess well make Come on lay your head upon my chestCome on, come on
Come on, come on
Spin that wheel, spin that wheel, spin that wheel.Pull the trigger load the gun
The journey home has only just begun
We could rise but if we swan-dive too
Oh Ill love going down with you
(come on pull the trigger load the gun)Come on, come on
Come on, come on
Spin that wheel, spin that wheel, spin that wheel
Come on, come on
Come on, come on
Spin that wheel, spin that wheel, spin that wheel
