

Just the Time of Year

Peter Frampton

Suddenly with no warning it was four in the morning
What the papers will say has been printed
I have no reason to want to change this season
It's just the time of year, yeah Suddenly I'm yawning, maybe 'cause it's five in the morning
Sleepless nights I have wasted
You are the reason, don't talk to me of treason
It's just the time of year, it's just the time of year, yeah Only one could steal your heart away
'Cause now you're looking the other way
What you give I find it hard I can't see
If you knew you wouldn't take it from me
Writing notes to an unconquered land
Well lying there on your square foot of sand Wake me up I'm sleeping
Good to see how your keeping
Me, I'm doing fine, I'm just wasted
