

Saints An' Sinners

Whitesnake

Get ready for Judgment Day
An' the final curtain call
Don't lie when you testify
'Cos the Good Lord knows you all
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
Moses stood on the Red Sea shore
Laying the Law on the line
He said, "Don't come knocking on the Pearly Gates
If all you did was have a real good time"
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
For what we are about to receive
May the Lord make us truly thankful
Saints an' sinners
I stand guilty of a thousand crimes
An' I suffer temptation still
Show me a man who won't give it to his woman
I'll show you somebody who will
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves, come on
For what we are about to receive
May the Lord make us truly thankful
Saints an' sinners
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
Get ready for Judgment Day
An' the final curtain call
Don't lie when you testify
The Good Lord knows you all
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
For what we are about to receive
May the Lord make us truly thankful
Saints an' sinners, priests an' thieves
Saints an' sinners, saints an' sinners
Saints an' sinners, saints an' sinners
Saints an' sinners, saints an' sinners
