

All You Got (Kidd's Kids Version)

Tim Halperin

This is for you who lost your hope
Stuck in the fight and you're on the rope
You know i've been there before
I couldnt take anymore.You were still running when the storm cloud broke
Lost on the water with nowhere to go
And you swore it was the end
But we all gotta start again.Brother this life is all you got
This could be your only shot
Dont miss your chance staring at the clock
Cause the fighting's never gonna stop
Woah, this life is all that you got.I've been in the front taking shots
And they're watching me fall
Now it makes me wonder
If there's reason to fight at all
Im praying to god up in the sky
To give me grace and make it right.Brother this life is all you got
This could be your only shot
Dont miss your chance staring at the clock
Cause the fighting's never gonna stop
Woah, yeah this life is all you got.The pain is real, that you feel
So take this time and let it heal
And all the lies that you despise
Let them go and win this fight.You'll win this fight
Oh, you'll win this fightBrother this life is all you got
This could be your only shot
Dont miss your chance staring at the clock
Cause the fighting's never gonna stop
Woah, woah, woah
Its all that you've got.
