

Reflecting

ç”°ä,-å -å<sup>13</sup>

Reflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the silvery sky
Reflecting the stars in the galaxy
Are you and I It`s been said that some mystery
Is essential if in love you wanna be
If that is true then she is my stigma
But I don`t mind loving an enigma Reflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the sun as it shines
Reflecting the moon in her solitude
Are you and I I have learned that my intuition
Is a guide to my souls` ambition
And I know that fear is a liar
It will keep you from soaring higher
Reflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the love in your sigh
Reflecting the u in the universe
Are you and I You can go and find a mirror
And love will let you see her
Then your eyes will open clearly
`Cause everything is merely Reflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the silvery sky
Reflecting the stars in the galaxy
Are you and I
