

Waking Up

Parachute

(Wake up)They were tearing down a desert highway
Like a bullet through the still of the heatHe was pointing at the constellations
She was sleeping in the passenger's seatHe said "we're finally gonna get out"
"I think we're finally gonna get out, yeah."
Oh I can feel it..I'm finally waking up
I'm finally waking up, I know (x2)We were caught up in an endless circle
Always looking for a place we could dreamWe were swimming in the deepest ocean
Wondering why we couldn't find any beachI think we're finally gonna get out x2
Oh I can feel itI'm finally waking up
I'm finally waking up, I know (x2)In the black night, melting away,
As the red sun rolls in it's place
She sat up, stretched,
And reached for the edge of the sky
Then opened her eyes
And woke upI'm finally waking up...
Waking up...Wake upI'm finally waking up
I'm finally waking up, i know (x2)
