

The Ride (Prod. By Doc McKinney, Illangelo)

Drake

I hate when people say they feel me man, I hate that s.
It'll be a long time before y'all feel me, if ever You won't feel me until everybody
Say they love you, but it's not love
And your suit is oxblood
And the girl you fing hates you
And your friends faded off shots of
What you ordered
Then forget about the game that you on top of
Your famous girlfriend a keep getting
Thicker than the plot does
And when you forget her, that's when she pop up
And you got a drop but you ride around with the top up
Or get three SUVs for n*s dressed like refugees
And deal with the questions
About all your excessive needs
And you do dinners at French Laundry in Napa Valley
Scallops and glaes of Dolce
That s right up your alley
You see a girl and you ask about her
B*es smiling at you, it must be happy hour
They put the cloth across your lap soon as you sat down
It's feeling like you own every place you choose to be at now
Walking through airport security with your hat down
Instead of getting a pat down, they just keep on
Saying that they feel you, n*Yeah,
It's been too long
Been way too long I've been faded too long
I've been faded too long
I've been faded too long
Why won't it start? The ride
Why won't it start? The ride You won't feel me 'til you want it so bad you tell yourself you're in it
And tell the world around you that your paper work is finished
And steal your mothers debit cards so you maintain an image
And ride around in overpriced rental cars that ain't tinted
You need a minute, you got it
You know its real when your latest nights are your greatest nights
The sun is up when you get home, that's just a way of life
Apartment fifteen o three, some couches and paintings
When you record with two others that want the same things

Yeah, it start to feel better than home feels
 And so you up there every night you swear you getting close
 That champagne money was for gas and phone bills
 But s you bout to spend it on what matters most
 You drop a couple songs and hopes that you can beat a n*
 And come out every night to let the city see the n*
 Telling stories that nobody relate to
 And even though they hate you they just keep on telling you they feel ya n*I've been faded too long
 I've been faded too long
 I've been faded too long
 Why won't it start? The ride
 Why won't it start? The rideI haven't been inside terminal one and three in so long
 I'm driving right up to it now, make sure you got your coat on
 That runway can be cold especially after summers rolled on
 And all you knew is alcohol and city lights and slow songs
 For four months out the year, it's got you asking what's good at home
 What's good at home?
 The same hoes are still at it, I shoulda known
 My young n*s poppin' M's and sippin' dirty jones
 Problem children that all be reppin' Octobers Own
 Brand new girl, and she still growing
 Brand new titties, stitches still showing
 Yeah and she just praying that it heals good
 I'm bout to f and I'm just praying that it feels good
 I really don't know much but s* I know a secret
 They say more money more problems, my n* don't believe it
 I mean sure there's some bills and taxes I'm still evading
 But I blew six million on my self and I feel amazing
 Young money maker, season ticket holder
 Season switching over
 I come through them b*es still scorching as if I didn't notice
 You n*s gettin' older, I see no threat in Yoda
 I'm out here messing over the lives of these n*s
 That couldn't f with my freshman flow
 Look at that fing chip on your nephews shoulder
 My sophomore I was all for it, they all saw it
 My Junior and senior will only get meaner
 Take care n*I'm still faded, faded, faded, faded (the ride)
 Why won't it start the ride?
 Why won't it start the ride?
 Why won't it start ooh the ride?
