Lovesick Lullaby

Antoine Dodson

I'm trying everything, I try to make it right
But every time I take a step you turn into a flight
I'm running out of breath, You take it out on me
And now you're everything I ever seeI hit the radio, I hear my favorite song
And now I'm screaming "DJ PUT ANOTHER RECORD ON"
I needed something not a nothing and it's killing me
And now you're everything I seeYou won't see me hangin round here
You won't see another tear
I got a story and it's got to stay true
Started with me instead of youCry Cry it's a Lovesick Lullaby
Make room for the lost and left behind
And I beleive in everything you want to be, but baby in this love maybe isn't good enoughCry Cry it's a lovesick lullaby
I try but I left it all behind
And I believe in everything you want to be, but Baby in this love maybe isn't good enoughIf I was everything everyone ever made of me
I wouldn't make it and take it to where I want to be
I'm tired of _____ back of waiting patientily
But still it's everything I ever seeI took you nothing, I've done enough - for you You're out of luck it's over now, it's through
I needed all or nothing and now it's killing me
But still you're everything I seeYou won't see me hangin round here
You won't see another tear
I got a story and it's got to stay true
Started with me instead of youCry Cry it's a Lovesick Lullaby
Make room for the lost and left behind
And I beleive in everything you want to be, but
Baby in this love maybe isn't good enoughCry Cry it's a lovesick lullaby
I try but I left it all behind
And I believe in everything you want to be, but baby in this love maybe isn't good enough
