

Insomnia (Jeff Balding mix)

Megadeth

Insomnia I'm running in quicksand
Somethings haunting me
The guilty past I've buried
My mind won't let me sleep I'll do anything for peace
I keep waking up
A solemn oath I make
Cross my heart, please let me sleep
I keep waking up
How much more do I take? My head's talking to me
I don't know what it needs
But the loudest voice
Is the one I heed
Insomnia
My swollen bloodshot eyes
Insomnia
Awake till morning light
Insomnia
Stirring deep inside
Insomnia
Somebody turn out the lights I, I, I can't sleep
I, Insomnia I'm twisting and turning
I keep waking up
The madness I must tame
My candle is burning
I keep waking up
Both ends again today
The whole house is creaking
I know they're out there
The things kept from sight
Bend to the shadows they can't sleep Insomnia
Footsteps on the walk
Insomnia
I hear someone knock
Insomnia
I wish it was a dream
Insomnia
Can you hear me scream? Insomnia
My swollen bloodshot eyes
Insomnia

Awake till morning light
Insomnia
Stirring deep inside
Insomnia
Somebody turn out the lightsInsomnia
Insomnia
Insomnia
