Died on the cross leaving me nothing to cry for Nothing to cry for brought the holy spirit upon me
What more i could want?
Changing i,remaining You are

I've been stuck in this place for too long,I need more and that you are.
We need more,more,more,more
We need more of You
We need more, more,more,more

We need more you
Am confused,there is so much going on my mind

I'm all alone,trying to reach the core and the cause of this pain Wait.. but God you're there!So i'm not gonna worry anymore,Because more i need of you see..
I just wanna,no more of these tear
I wanna share yeah,no more

Eyyy,If I could have more,more more,more,more
We need more of you
We need more,more,more,more,more
We need more of you.
