The End

Dream Evil

Right now I know it hurts
But it'll get better
I oughta know - I do
Wish I could take away
All sorrow and anger
Away from your heart, so sorry I can't
Please take my handYou never know why
You never know how
Your life will turn out, my friend
So don't you cry
New days will rise
Things will be better again, my friendWhat doesn't kill you will
Only make you stronger
God knows I'm strong, so strong
Life has no guarantees
Take nothing for granted
It's nothing new under the sun
Life must go onYou never know why
You never know how
Your life will turn out, my friend
So don't you cry
New days will rise
So dry your tears now my friend
Things will be o.k. in the end
