JPNSGRLS

Give me entertainment like the shadows on the wall they look like animals I've never seen but I recognize them all when the glory's fading and the innocence wore off I think it more than that and it's sorta bad that you never seem to coughSo let's make out like lovers do there's more to life than getting used So hold me under hold my breath and hold my hand if I go deaf from the noiseGive me entertainment
like the shadows on the wall that look like kitty cats and it makes me laugh because the kitty gets so small
and the high is wearing off I think it's more than that and it's sorta sad when you go and call the copsSo let's make out like lovers do there's more to life than getting used so let's make out like lovers do there's more to life than getting used to deathIngest whenever you're depressed
you're killing me smalls
let's take two to get closer to you, oh, oh
you're killing me smalls
so let's make out like lovers do there's more to life than getting used to death
you're killing me smalls
you're killing me smalls
you're killing me smalls
you're killing me smallsGimme entertainment
that look like kitty cats and it makes me laugh when the kitty gets so small
kudos to the contraband of the modern man that never learned to crawl
