Me

ASP

Under the stairs and beyond your horizon
There lives a creature that wants to be free
Under your skin and beneath the dark water
There ascends a shining light secretlyAh there is blood on the horizon
Ah and the flood comes in from the sea
Ah and a storm behind your eyes and
Ah there is no one left to see
MeStay where you are don't give way to your hunger
Shivering you stand there, it makes you yearn
For what lies hidden a phantasmagoria
Follow the light and you'll never returnAh there is blood on the horizon
Ah and the flood comes in from the sea
Ah, and a storm behind your eyes and
Ah there is no one left to see
