

Backwards and Forwards

The Family Crest

Backwards and forwards and backwards and forwards
Backwards and forwards and backwards and forwards
Now he adores her and now he does scorn her
Backwards and forwards she wants him to be
But their moment ran out when his heart ceased to beat Oh no,
How now the silence grows
Out from the way they were
And how now they're stationed
Oh no, now that they know Backwards and forwards and backwards and forwards
Backwards and forwards and backwards and forwards
Now he adores her and now he does mourn her
Backwards and forwards he wants her to be
But their moment ran out when her heart ceased to beat Oh no,
How now the silence grows
Out from the way they were
And how now they're stationed
Oh no, now that they know Backwards and forwards they wanted to be
But their moment ran out when their hearts ceased to beat Oh no,
Now that the silence holds
Out for the words they'd known
But how now they're stationed Oh no,
Now that the night moves on
Pulls from the sound
That's bringing us down Backwards and forwards and backwards and forwards
And backwards and forwards and backwards and forwards
