There Is A City

Maranatha! Music

I close my eyes and see a place
A city so much better that the earth
Angels are singing hallelujah
Declaring Your beauty and Your WorthI can see the saints that went before us
Preparing a table for us all
Reminding me to live a life of holiness
So Heaven can become my final homeThere is a city brighter than the sun
There is a hope for believers old and young
There is a place where Jesus sits beside the throne of God
Waiting for His brideImagine as we stand before the Throne
And hear the Father say my child well done
All the sacrifice was so well worth it
To live eternally with Christ the SonTo dance the streets of gold in the spirit
To celebrate the Lion and the Lamb
To cast our crowns before the feet of Jesus
And worship Him He is the great I AmOh, there is a city brighter than the sun
There is a hope for believers old and young
There is a place where Jesus sits beside the throne of God
Waiting for His brideOh, there is a city, yeah brighter than the sun
Oh, there is a hope for believers old and young
There is a place where Jesus sits beside the throne of God
Waiting for, waiting for His brideWont you come with me?
Wont you leave the world behind and come with me?
Dont you wanna be free to live with God eternally?Wont you come with me?
Wont you leave the world behind and come with me?
Dont you wanna be free to live with God eternally?Oh, there is a city, yeah brighter than the sun
There is a hope for believers old and young
There is a place where Jesus sits beside the throne of God
Waiting for His brideEverybody sing
There is a city brighter than the sun
There is a hope for believers old and young
There is a place where Jesus sits beside the throne of God
Waiting for His brideWhere Jesus sits beside the throne of God
Waiting for His bride
Where Jesus sits beside the throne of God
Waiting for His brideWont you come with me?
