Hey, Mama

Fuel

Hey mama, would you give a little bit of your time to me?
I said mama, would you give a little bit of your time to me?
Cause I've been standing here so long waiting for your love to cover me
I said mama, would you give a little bit of your company? (x2)
Cause I've been standing here so long waiting for your love to cover me
So cover me, cover me, cover me, cover meHey mama, would you give a little bit of your love to me?
I said mama, would you give a little bit of your love to me?
Cause I've been standing here so long waiting for your love to cover me
Just cover me, alright
Cover me, won't you cover me
Cover me, hey
I said mama, ah cover me
Hey, alright
Won't ya, won't yaI said mama, would you give a little bit of your love?
