Red Harvest

Bloodsimple

This song is called 'Red Harvest'

Destroy, goHow many people can I hate in my mind

With an intention of murder?

Because the people fear me, the people bleeding

Once they're conditioned, it's easy to provoke aggression

This premonition is evilKilling begets more killing

The blood lust begins

Killing begets more killing

The blood lust beginsWhat kind of visions can I build in my mind

To harvest the hearts of the people?

To create the fever you need a reason

Once they're conditioned, it's easy to provoke aggression

This premonition is evilKilling begets more killing

The blood lust begins

Killing begets more killing

The blood lust begins It makes me feel alive in my eyes

It makes all the pain subsideJust out after sunset

I take a walk down the streets

You know, try to clear my head

And I feel like I gotta put my fist upon the wall

Feel the cold concrete as it tears apart my controlTake it and feel it, you freak

I feel I'm breaking down now

Take it, feel it, you freak

I feel I'm breaking down nowTake it, feel it, you freak

I feel I'm breaking down now

Take it, feel it, you freak

I feel I'm breaking down now Take it, feel it, you freak

I feel I'm breaking down

Take it, feel it, you freak

I feel I'mTake it, feel it, you freak

I feel I'm fucking up

Take it, feel it, you freak

I can't get out
