I Love You

Black Flag

I put my fist through the door
I hate myself for youI love youSuspicion rules my very soul
My knife is sharp, my thougths are coldI love you
I love you
Because, I love youI can't talk, I can't think
My feelings burn inside of meI love youI practice my knife, I feel the power
I look in the mirror and I want to destroy herI love youI gave you my life, but what did I get?
Now it's time to take it backI love you
I love you
Because, I love youI hear a car, your footsteps outside
Knife in hand, love in heart
Sweating - I waitI love youYou screamed, you bled, you laid on the floor
But now I know you'll leave me no moreI love you
I love you
Because, I love you
