

Alright

Cheri Dennis

I'll be okay

Haven't I been good to you
Who's there to give you what you needed (everything you needed)
Now why you looking like that? (that)
You know I'm telling the truth

Haven't I been there for you
Now you want to say it's not working
I did everything you needed
Now why are you acting like that (that)
Boy I'm through dealing with you

[Chorus: Repeat 2X]
I've got to get you off my life (my life)
Don't apologize
I will be alright
Don't worry
I'll be okay
I'll even be better off without you, anyway

Can't believe I walked away
From everything I knew
Just because you said you needed me (you needed me)
Wish I wasn't so blind (blind)
Why didn't I see the signs, oh oh (oh)
I was caught up in the circumstance
Wanted everything to be just like it was (give you everything you needed)
But there's no return
I so glad I learned

[Chorus:]
I get the point, you don't want me any more
No more
I'm not going begging you to stay (begging you to stay)
I won't trouble you no more (no more)
I'm walking away from you (ahh)
Got to breakaway from you, ahh

[Chorus:]

My life
I'll be alright
Don't you worry, oh
Walk away, run away, oh ah
