

State of Paralysis

Evergrey

See my sorrow
My tears when they fall
Feel my anguish
Where's my shelter when I am cold? My eyes seek something
But finds nothing at all
My souls screams for mercy
Where's my guidance when I'm lost? The will I had ain't strong enough
The strength I seek ain't there
And my world is dead, my future's broken
'Cause it all stays the sameThey're coming, they're coming
They're coming, they're coming
They're coming, they're coming
