

Get Your Politics Out Of My Hair

The Sainte Catherines

The fun is just starting
I love the way I smell
Let's have a party
Let's all be ugly
It's time to take back the streets You've been talking all week about sleeping
We've been talking all week about destroying
You've been talking all week about nothing
We've been talking about dancing for decadence I feel dancing and puking
I feel like sweating and laughing
I feel like drinking and reading
I feel like falling I feel like stealing yours cars
I feel like robbing your banks
I feel like eating your food
I'm gonna burn your churches You've been talking all week about sleeping
We've been talking all week about destroying
You've been talking all week about nothing
We've been talking about dancing for decadence Pretty girl, show me some brain
Pretty dumb girl, you're out of shame
Yeah sex is fun but drinking is better
Could your jeans be any tighter? I don't look good enough to be your friend
I have too much fun, I know I should be ashamed
And I'm talking to myself now
If you're not my friend now you never were and you'll never be Because I'm not professional enough to be your friend
