

Blueberry Pie

Lizzy Long

Blueberry Pie

Wayne Haun, Randall Garland, Val DacusVERSE:

Your hands are calloused, and your eyes they don't dream

And you haven't smiled much in 15 years

Folks say you're a hard man, but they've never seen

All the times when you've tenderly dried all my tearsCHORUS:

You're as cold as a north wind in winter

You're as tough as the ground in July

But when it comes to lovin your lady

You're as sweet as blueberry pieVerse:

You ain't one for talkin and you don't show your fear

You're not afraid to stand up for what is right

Some think you're uncaring , but they'll never hear

All the "I love You's " that you tell me, every night
