Halo the Red Light

RADIORADIO

Is it the red light that hides your eyes from me?
Is it the weightless lines of your body?
Is the heavens
that guide my eyes to thee?'Cause I'm beggin' please, Oh baby on my knees!Halo round, halo the red light.
Halo round, halo the red light.Is it the feeling there's little left in me?
Was it the careless dance, the reckless wondering?
You are the alpha,
the split,
the quickening.And I'm beggin' please, Oh baby on my knees!Halo round, halo the red light.
Halo round, halo the red light.Red light, halo round, halo the red light.
Softly bleed into the spotlight.
All this time,
you were still my frulein.Red light love
Red light love
Red light love
Red light love
