Sunrise

Open Heaven

Father, You are faithful, God, like the rising sun,
You never change.
Forever, like the ocean tide, like the sun and sky,
You never fade.
The stars are hung on Your words, woah, woah,
The universe declares You are, You are

Certain as the sunrise, Your words will never fade!
Certain as the sunrise, Your promises remain!
Certain as the sunrise, oh, certain as the sunrise!

Father, You are faithful, God, like the rising sun,
You never change.
Forever, like the ocean tide, like the sun and sky,
You never fade.
The stars are hung on Your words, woah, woah,
The universe declares You are, You are

Certain as the sunrise, Your words will never fade!
Certain as the sunrise, Your promises remain!
Certain as the sunrise, oh, certain as the sunrise!

I know, that You will never fail me!
I know, that You will never fail me! - 2x

Certain as the sunrise, Your words will never fade!
Certain as the sunrise, Your promises remain!
Certain as the sunrise, oh, certain as the sunrise!
