

Fighter Girl

Mason Jennings

Spinning your umbrella over your head
You should be in bed but your here instead
Walking with me towards a midnight swim
I can give you baby what you can't get from him Song bird singing in an old dead tree
The way your drive honey scares the hell out of me
100 mph on a brand new road
Look at me again you make my heart explode Hey hey little fighter girl
It's you and me up against this whole wide world
Sleeping together in the lions den
Got your earrings in my pocket till I see you again Clouds roll by laying up on the hill
Everything is still do you think we will
If we do there will be no turning back
If we don't, well there's no chance of that Hey hey little fighter girl
It's you and me up against this whole wide world
Sleeping together in the lions den
Got your earrings in my pocket till I see you again Yeah yeah yeah yeah...
Come on kissing me
Keep on kissing me
Come on kissing me
Keep on kissing me Cars in the distance a bicycle bell
Dogs are barking as the kingdom fell
In it's place stood a golden town
Where people walked without touching the ground Hey hey little fighter girl
It's you and me now against this whole wide world
Sleeping together in the lions den
Baby I can't sleep at all until I see you again Yeah yeah yeah yeah...
Come on kissing me
Keep on kissing me
Come on kissing me
Keep on kissing me
