Suddenly Tragic

Cky

A stable place in the scheme was all that you asked for,
You find it hard to concentrate through the laughter
Use the height of competence, to break the common ground
Beyond the bad experience, an answer can be found
Typically a few will stop your momentum
With solid focus broken, why would you let them?
Use the height of competence to break the common ground
Beyond the bad experience, vengence swings around
Why put the gun to your head, if you're already dead?
See me lashing at will, even after the kill
Why put the gun to your head, if you're already dead?
Tragically mistake you for a man
Suddenly the satisfaction stands
Tragically they'll catch you if they can

Suddenly mortality's a scam
A sad attempt at esacaping from all disaster
Complications restraining all that comes after
Use the height of competence to break the common ground
Beyond the bad experience an answer to be found
Why put the gun to your head, if you're already dead?
See me lashing at will, even after the kill
Why put the gun to your head, if you're already dead?
Tragically mistake you for a man
Suddenly the satisfaction stands
Tragically they'll catch you if they can
Suddenly mortality's a scam
