Bleeding Words

Mobile

Blue moon in a black sky
Peaceful silence, violent night
Better keep them silent
Words are amplified
You can easily throw them away
Where they will stay on someone else's mind
I need to tell you so but you'll be the last to know
No warning for you
Words to convince, words to deny
Speaking the language of love and lies
Bleeding words, they lead joy to sorrow
Freedom to death row
Hopelessly, she said I'm so sorry
It's nothing like I ever heard
'Cause nothing hurts like your bleeding words
Words you use to hurt me
You can easily throw them away
Where they will stay on someone else's mind
I need to tell you so that you'll be the last to know
Never wanted to bring you down so far

All the best things in disguise
We have no choice, there is no going back
Promises, promises
Everything we said, everything we tried
Between me and you, the endless silence took over
We've run right out of words
Hopelessly, she said I'm so sorry
It's nothing like I ever heard
'Cause nothing hurts like your bleeding words
Words you use to hurt me
Bleeding words used without a care
Nothing hurts like
Nothing hurts like your bleeding words
Nothing hurts like
Nothing hurts like your bleeding words
Nothing hurts like
Nothing hurts like your bleeding words
Nothing hurts like

Nothing hurts like your bleeding words
