

Navajo

Masego

I know you see it, girl
This ain't sitting real good in my soul
Everywhere this little girl goes
She picks up another obstacle
She was my heart
I don't know the tribe or the fall
But by default she don't think of me
I thought she was an Indian (navajo)
Now she's slingin' thangs like a simian (now I know)
All my life I wanted me an Indian (there she goes)
Now she's far away
But I had to know
I know you see it, girl
This ain't sitting real good in my soul
Everywhere this little girl goes
She picks up another obstacle
She was my heart
I don't know the tribe or the fall
But by default she don't think of me
I thought she was an Indian (navajo)
Now she's slingin' thangs like a simian (now I know)
All my life I wanted me an Indian (there she goes)
Ooo girl lemme in
In the street
With a wedding ring
And she hit the bar
City babe, are you down to cheat
He looked in her eye
Chivalry is it really dead?
He pulled out a tip? Pay Up
Jumpin' right on him
Thinkin' when's it good to intervene
Then I lost her
Lost her to the world and the girls and impostors
Entertain? I doubt it'll pay and it cost her
I ain't mad at me but it hurts
I thought she was an Indian (navajo)
But now she only worried bout' the Benjamin's (grab the gold)
she been looking' in my dreams (there she goes)

I said i swear that eyes on me

But i had to know

I said i swear that eyes on me

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>