The Hunger

Dies Irae

the moon shines bright
among the stars
deity among angels
unquestionable ruler
so bright, so cold, so endless when it calls they obey lunatic faceless creatures mesmerized by its aurablood boils in veins shadows spy on their masters strange scent in the air betrays the pray to hunters excitement sharpens senses all shapes become clearer time stops, the hunt beginsthe hunger is appeased hypnotic trans gives in narcotic extasy
calms down
the wrath within lazy indifference
drunk eyes seem blind
yet watching
things that are not really thereagain moon shines among stars
so bright, so majestic
again it calls they obey hypnotized by its aura
time stops, the hunt begins
