20/20

The O.C. Supertones

I felt so introspective tonight
Thinkin' ahead about my final hindsight
Did I make every moment count?
How much did I sit about
Doin' not the good I know to do?What will I say when I'm faced with His glory, the saints
And the angels as I tell my story?
Will the works I've accomplished be worthy of heaven
What will I think lookin' back?What was gold, what was dross?
What was gain, what was loss?
What will stand, what was fleeting?
And what will I change while my hearts still beating?20/20, so many thoughts fill up my mind
Look inside the word and I can't find
The promise of another day
Or how much longer I will stay
No one really knows how long they have
