

As Happy as Happy Gets (feat. Kelly Ogden)

Bowling for Soup

She packed her shit
And she left for the city
On the 18th train
And I still can't believe it Man I don't know how we could let this happen She slammed the door
And she gave me the finger
Ill be back so fast
I still can't remember
You can read it yourself
Its all in the letter Man I don't even know how we could let this happen Maybe your right
We've had a good time
I'll sit around
You get yourself a new life
Go get your spark
Go find your smile
And get happy It's hurts
Your back
Did you find what was missing?
Was it just that easy
And were your mistaken? Man I don't even know how we could let this happen
I don't even know how we could let this happen Maybe your right
We've had a good time
I'll sit around
You get yourself a new life
Go get your spark
Go find your smile
And just let it shine tonight wherever you are
I hope there's a spark
Save me a smile
And get happy (yeah) Happy (yeah)
Happy (yeah) Maybe your right
We've had a good time
I'll sit around
You get yourself a new life
Go get your spark
Go find your smile
And just let it shine tonight wherever you are
I hope there's a spark
Save me a smile
And get happy And get happy (yeah)

Get happy (yeah)Packed your shit and you left me
(find your smile)
Slammed the door and forgave me
(find your smile)
Guess who's back in the city
(find your smile)
And I just hope your happy
