The Light Between Us

Scouting For Girls

There's too much light between us, and I?m trying to mind the Gap.
I'd do anything to fix us, not just paper up the cracks.
Sliding doors are closing, did I let you get away?
There's light in this tunnel, but I think it?s a train.
Something?s missing in my heart,
It?s the bit where you are,
I need you back,
Please Please mind the gap.
I don?t know where to start,

Never been this far apart.
I need you back
Please, please mind the gap
The light between us
The light between us
The light between us grows and grows and grows
The light between us
The light between us
The light between us grows and grows and...
