

I Surrender

Steps

Maybe I wanted to be free
I wanted time to be me
I tried to fly so high
But something's changed inside of my heart And now there's the sweetest pain
Oh, I can't explain
It's time I asked
What am I running from and to Ooh, I surrender baby
I need your love to save me
Now I know that I was wrong
I'm coming back 'cause love is strong Yeah, I surrender baby
So stop my heart from breaking
It's crazy but now that we're through
The only thing I want is you
So surrender too Maybe we're only halves alone
And it's together we are whole
And now I've thought it through
Well, it all works out, it's you I love Every single day I picture your face
But it's not enough
And I can't fight the truth no more Oh, I surrender baby
I need your love to save me
Now I know that I was wrong
I'm coming back 'cause love is strong And I surrender baby
So stop my heart from breaking
It's crazy but now that we're through
The only thing I want is you
So surrender too Now I know what love is worth
And it's too much to lose
And I know there's nothing else
Nothing else but you
So surrender too Oh, I surrender baby
I need your love to save me
Now I know that I was wrong
I'm coming back 'cause love is strong Yeah, I surrender baby
So stop my heart from breaking
It's crazy but now that we're through
The only thing I want is you
So surrender too
