Watch Your Words

Alter Bridge

Watch your words
Or your words might drown you
And cure my wounds
And the light will blind you
To truly see well, you must have faith
Oh, the righteous they can't wait
A saving grace that we all know
Let us pray, let us hold on
I can't breathe, I prefer to find a ceiling
To the hate of mine, I can't win
I can fight no more, I am drowning
And I'm sick inside
Push no more and the day will find you
Speak no truth and your ways will end you
It's alright and you must move on
Though the damage has been done
Cherish the life and the ones you hold
Can you change? Can you go on?
I can't breathe, I prefer to find a ceiling
To the hate of mine, I can't win
I can fight no more, I am drowning
And I'm sick inside
To truly see well, you must have faith
Oh, the righteous they can't wait
A saving grace that we all know
Let us pray, let us hold on
I can't breathe, I prefer to find a ceiling
To the hate of mine, I can't win
I can fight no more, I am drowning
And I'm sick inside

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/