Song Seven

Interpol

You can't sit up
You fell too fast
You come at the right time
Yeah, you come too fast
You bloom in spring
Yeah, you move the sky
You've come in singing
Yeah, you call me a liar
You were like a cloud
Yes, you are a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sour
You were like a flower
You were just like a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sour
Don't give up
(I owe you)
No don't give up
Oh don't give up
Don't give up
(I owe you)
You were like a cloud
Yes, you were a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sour
You were like a cloud
You were just like a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sour
Here I feel I wish
I could just see it
The love the hate
The things that separate
Forcing conscious
To conscious every small attack
It takes a small man
To notice but not to act up
Confrontation, complication

Needs a foundation
I'm calm baby, I'm calm
You were like a cloud
Yes, you are a flower
You move I love life
Is all we need
Then you were a lime
Now our love is so sour
You move I love life
Is all we need
So sour, so sour
Don't give up
No don't give up
Oh don't give up
No don't give up
Start again buttercup
(I owe you)
Start again buttercup
(I owe you)
Start again buttercup
(I owe you)
Start again, start again dear
(I owe you)
