Just Let Go

The Stereo

you didn't need nobody you didn't want no one you made a bad decision now you're down and you got no one where do you go when you're gone? is something wrong with me?
cause when i leave you seem kinda happy what did i do? what did i say? cause something's wrong and you don't want to tell me it's so easy, follow me so i can't find the words to describe exactly how i feel if i could just let go i would tell you how i feel don't be sad
it's too bad say it ain't so you're becoming a real drag let it go cause it's not about you alone you want a new beginning say you're a modern girl you made up all your feelings you're down and out in a modern world i've made some big mistakes so go ahead laugh at me
but i'll try again, honestly
