

Montego

Ernest Ranglin & Floyd Lloyd Seivright

I know I get what I give, since I don't feel too good
Guess I don't give much, maybe I just wanna live
I knock on wood every time, I feel human touch
    What can I do to fit in? Kiss up to someone
It will never happen, when alienation hits in on me
    My empathy is gone, my conscious blackens
And I just spit in your face, when you ask for help
    My heart is made of stone
    Nobody's best friend, I'm on my defense
    Everyone stands alone, another elbow hit
    Somebody's ego trip, everyone stands alone
    Everyone stands alone
I know I get what I give, funny vibes, what goes around
    Comes around but yeah, I just wanna live
With someone by my side, some kind of close bond
    Another spit in your face, every time you need me
    I am busy with my own
    Nobody's best friend, I'm on my defense
    Everyone stands alone, another elbow hit
    Somebody's ego trip, everyone stands alone
Everyone stands alone, when it all comes down to it
    We all stand alone
    S-s-stand alone, nobody's best friend
    I'm on my defense, everyone stands alone
    Another elbow hit, somebody's ego trip
    Everyone stands alone
    So many times it's been shown
Everyone stands alone, hearts that are made of stone
Everyone stands alone, when it all comes down to it
    We all stand alone

Lyrics provided by
<https://damlyrics.com/>