

She's About As Lonely As I'm Going to Let Her Get

Brooks & Dunn

Oh, off across the room
She sits alone
Pretty as a picture
Sadder than a sad song Well, I'll do what it takes
Try whatever works
I can't just sit here
And watch her hurt While she sorts out
Why Mister Right did her wrong
Give her one more drink
And a few more songs In the barroom haze
All alone, she sits
Oh, she's about as lonely
As I'm gonna let her get Oh, sittin' lonely at the bar
Tryin' to drown the past
Starin' at her broken heart
At the bottom of her glass Oh, I don't want to push her
But I can't take much more
Think I'm gonna have to step up
And show heartache to the door While she sorts out
Why Mister Right did her wrong
Give her one more drink
And a few more songs In the barroom haze
All alone, she sits
Oh, she's about as lonely
As I'm gonna let her get While she sorts out
Why Mister Right did her wrong
Give her one more drink
And a few more songs In the barroom haze
All alone, she sits
Yeah, she's about as lonely
Yeah, she's about as lonely
As I'm gonna let her get
