This One

Snowmine

From the highest peaks,
to the valleys below.
From my happiest,
to the depths of my soul.I let loose a stone
and watched it fall down.
No matter where it lands
but only where I am.
BecauseThis one's for money-
This one's for love-
This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of.
Wohowh, ohouh. Wohowh, ohouh.
(Oh yeah)
This one's for greed, another for affection.
How can I live without natural selection?Let us fade away.
And make time for another day.Here we crossed the lake,
hoping to see something.
And I told you last year
that the fish'es were here.
Now look at my embarassement.
I've led us into a trap.
I've put us right in a mirror
and I can't get out!This one's for money-
This one's for love-
This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of.
Wohowh, ohouh. Wohowh, ohouh.
(Oh yeah)
This one's for greed, another for affection.
How can I live without natural selection?Let us fade away.
And make time for another day.Hohohow, wohohowo owh, hehehe, nhahaha, nwohowohw, wohohoow, wohuouhouh, wohowh.This one's for money-
This one's for love-
This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of.
Wohowh, ohouh. Wohowh, ohouh.
(Oh yeah)
This one's for greed, another for affection.
How can I live without natural selection?Let us fade away.
And make time for another day.
