

This One

Snowmine

From the highest peaks,
to the valleys below.

From my happiest,
to the depths of my soul. I let loose a stone and watched it fall down.

No matter where it lands
but only where I am.

Because This one's for money-

This one's for love-

This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of.

Wohowh, ohouh. Wohowh, ohouh.

(Oh yeah)

This one's for greed, another for affection.

How can I live without natural selection? Let us fade away.

And make time for another day. Here we crossed the lake, hoping to see something.

And I told you last year
that the fish'es were here.

Now look at my embarrassment.

I've led us into a trap.

I've put us right in a mirror and I can't get out! This one's for money-

This one's for love-

This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of.

Wohowh, ohouh. Wohowh, ohouh.

(Oh yeah)

This one's for greed, another for affection.

How can I live without natural selection? Let us fade away.

And make time for another day. Hohohow, wohohowo ow, hehehe, nhahaha, nwohowohw, wohohoow, wohuouhouh, wohowh. This one's for money-

This one's for love-

This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of.

Wohowh, ohouh. Wohowh, ohouh.

(Oh yeah)

This one's for greed, another for affection.

How can I live without natural selection? Let us fade away.

And make time for another day.
