For My Daughter

Kane Brown

Someone to play catch with out in the backyard
To pick up the pieces of yourâ€ firstâ€ broken heart
Someone toâ€ say slow down when you turnâ€ sixteenYeah, I grew up without a dad
I'm gonna be the best one I can beSomeone to scare the monsters
When it's dark in your room
Someone to put their foot down
When you want a tattoo
And not just say I love you
But show you what it means
Yeah, I grew up without a dad
I'm gonna be the best one I can be
They say dads are supposed to shape you and in a way I guess mine did
I knew what I wouldn't do if I ever had a kid
They say history repeats itself
Well, I guess that's up to me
I grew up without a dad
I'm gonna be the best one I can beSomeone to let you fall down and teach you how to get back up
Teach you how to be sweet like mamma and how to be tough
Yeah, I'll never be perfect
But sure as those lines are pink
Yeah, I grew up without a dad
I'm gonna be the best one I can beThey say dads are supposed to shape you and in a way I guess mine did
I knew what I wouldn't do if I ever had a kid
They say history repeats itself
Well, I guess that's up to me
I grew up without a dad
I'm gonna be the best one I can be
Yeah, I can't change the past
But the past has sure changed me
I grew up without a dad
I'm gonna be the best one I can be
I said I'm gonna be a dad and I'm gonna be the best one I can beThe best one I can be Love you, baby girl

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/