Jackie

Ellie Campbell

Got a call the other day
And it took me by surprise
Didn't quite know what to say
But he kept me on the line
Say he drove by the house and he found nobody home
Then he had the nerve to ask
What I was doing later on
I try to keep it to myself
Now cause you no pain
But something's got to change
Jackie,jackie he's no good
And he doesn't treat you like he should
When he says his love is true
Don't you believe
Jackie,jackie I'm your friend
It's only gonna hurt you in the end
And I know cause he's been coming on to me
Oh jackie
Yeah
At the party friday night
You were in the other room
And he came up from behind
And it just wasn't cool
Then he try to take my hand
And I told him that's no way
Jackie's my best friend
And I have not feel the same
I try to keep it to myself
Now cause you no pain

But something's got to change
Jackie,jackie he's no good (no)
And he doesn't treat you like he should
When he says his love is true (don't you believe him, no)
Don't you believe (oh yeah)
Jackie,jackie I'm your friend
It's only gonna hurt you in the end
And I know cause he's been coming on to me
Oh jackie

I think it's time you know what's going on(oh)
I think it's time you know he's not the one
I think it's time you understand
Things are getting out of hand
Oh yeah yeah
Oh jackie
Yeah yeah yeah
Jackie,jackie he's no good
And he doesn't treat you like he should(oh)
When he says his love is true(don't you believe him,no)
Don't you believe
Jackie,jackie I'm your friend
It's only gonna hurt you in the end
And I know cause he's been coming on to me
Jackie,jackie he's no good(no good) and he doesn't treat you like he should
When he says his love is true
Don't you believe
Jackie,jackie I'm your friend
It's only gonna hurt you in the end
And I know cause he's been coming on to me
