

Alright, I'm Wrong (with Buck Owens)

Dwight Yoakam

Well alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong
Well alright, alright I didn't know you felt that strong
Well alright you made your point
I didn't plan to stay this long
Alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong You said that love could make a king
Give up his crown for just one thing
I was lookin' for a little princess for just one night
But alright, alright yeah. yeah Well alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong
Well alright, alright I didn't know you felt that strong
Well alright you made your point
I didn't plan to stay this long
So alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong I heard that love's flame can blind
But slowly burn out over time
Now we'll know that it just gets stronger
And I can see you're right
As the years go by Well alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong
Alright, alright I didn't know you felt that strong
Well, alright you made your point
I didn't plan to stay this long
So alright, alright, alright
So alright, alright, alright
Well, alright, alright alright girl I'm wrong Girl I'm wrong
Well, Alright, alright I didn't know you felt that strong
Well, alright you made your point
I didn't plan to stay this long
So alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong Well alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong
Well alright, alright I didn't know you felt that strong
Well alright you made your point
I didn't plan to stay this long
So alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong Well, alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong

Songwriters

PETE ANDERSON, CRAIG CISCOPublished by Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>