

Stitch

Warsaw Poland Bros

Clearing pain, sore emotion
Drowning me, Never break the oath.
Sin for salvation
Like leaves we flow
From a need to nothing
I said give me a blow
Do not forsake me
A breath from the past Kissing methen blood will stained
I never felt so calm before
The entire world is disease
So bring your soul
Let's hallucinate
Because the lie
is most perfectly tool
Of wordl's resurrection
Because you know it too
Just give me it and then shout Reflection
from the death
A meaning of it all
It all are cures as a stich
Just a stich
"Have you ever loved someone?"
