

I Love My Momma

Snoop Dogg

Momma, momma, I love my momma
I love my momma, through all the drama
Momma, momma, I love my momma
Check it out The first one to hold me
(Yeah)
The first one to scold me
(Yes-o)
You never cease to teach me
And always try to reach me
(Momma) Took me to school the first day
Taught me how to kneel, down and pray
(Amen)
You learned me how to count from one to ten
And never forget, where I've been, momma Yeah, I love my momma
Through all the drama, I love my momma
(I love my momma)
Through all the drama, I love my momma
Yeah, I love my momma, love you momma
(Momma) I love my momma
Through all the drama
Yeah I love my momma, I love you mom
(Momma)
I love my momma Through all the drama
Yeah I love my momma
I love you momma
(I love you momma)
Yeah, I love you momma

Trip You taught me how to care
(Uhh)
You taught me how to share
(F'real)
You taught me how to love and to give
Thanks to the one above, I love you momma Yeah, I love my momma
I love you, momma, I love my momma
I love you, momma
I love you, momma
(I love you, momma) I love my momma

(I love you, momma)
I love my momma
(Now you tell 'em Snoop) You taught me how to read and write, how to fight
My do's and don'ts, my wills and my won'ts
I'll never forget, the things that we went through Bangin' oldies in the livin' room, sippin' brew Schlitz Malt Liquor was the thing back then
My momma was my homey my daddy and my best friend
Ask the Twinz, them my lil' locos to the end
And Warren G and Nate Dogg, shit them my true friends Time and time again, I'ma spit this rhyme again
She the queen in my life and I'ma make sure she gon' shine again
She taught me everythang but she didn't charge a fee
She taught me everythang, except how to see a G For the nine months you carried, I hope you bury me
Instead of the other way around and I put that on Dogg Pound
I made you cry, you made me smile
I just wanna say I love you for life
And that's the reason why I'm here no, love, Snoop I love my momma, yeah
I love my momma
(I love you momma)

Through all the drama

(I love you) Momma, momma, momma
Momma, I love my momma
Momma, I love you momma
I love you momma, momma, momma Your money wasn't always long
(Fo' sho')
