Revolution

L.A. Guns

I don't need no aggravation
I don't want no more lies
And when I told you that I only want
What's best for you
I see the secret in your eyesI'm alright, we're alright
Let's start a revolution, yeah
And roll away the stoneI don't need no affirmation
I just wanna take you home
And if I told you
That I could not keep a secret
Would you tell me anyway?I'm alright, we're alright
Let's start a revolution, yeah
And roll away the stoneI'm alright, you're alright
Let's start a revolution, yeah
And roll away the stoneI won't ever, I don't know
I can't ever let you goI'm alright, we're alright
Let's start a revolution, yeah, oh, oh
I'm alright, we're alright
Let's start a revolution, yeah
Roll away the stoneI'm alright, we're alright
Let's start a revolution, yeah
Roll away the stone
