Fantasy

Dye

The walls so high and you won't feel
The moon is always spying on your fears
I make it to the golden geek and fail
So then you throw your fantasy away to fade

Oh and I take
Take it in vain
So I fake
Fake it again

To Tokyo network stocks I stream
All of my wasted dreams on the screen

Oh and I take
Take it in vain
So I fake
Fake it again

Couldn't I
Not take in pain
Couldn't I
Not fake it again
Can't I not take in pain
Can't I not fake it again

I've sent my heart away
Like heroes in the rain
