So Beautiful

Darren Hayes

Whether I'm right or wrong
There's no phrase that hits
Like an ocean needs the sand
Or a dirty old shoe that fitsAnd if all the world was perfect
I would only ever want to see your scars
You know they can have their universe
We'll be in the dirt designing starsAnd darlin', you know
That you make me feel so beautiful
Nowhere else in the world I wanna be
You make me feel so beautifulWhether I'm up or down
There's no crowd to please

I'm like a faith without a clause

To believe in itAnd if all the world was smiling

I would only ever want to see your frown

You know they can sail away in sunsets

We'll be right here stranded on the ground

Just happy to be foundYou make me feel so beautiful

Nowhere else in the world I wanna be

You make me feel so beautiful have lost my illusions, I have drowned in your words

I have left my confusion to a cynical world

I am throwing myself at things I don't understand

Discover enlightenment holding your handYou are

So beautiful Yeah, darlin', you know

That you make me feel so beautiful

Nowhere else in the world I wanna be

Yeah, you make me feel, yeah, you know, so beautiful Yeah, darlin', you know

That you make me feel so beautiful

Nowhere else in the world I wanna be

You make me feel so beautiful Yeah, darlin', you know

That you make me feel so beautiful

Nowhere else in the world I wanna be

You make me feel so beautiful Yeah, darlin', you know

You are beautiful, you, you are

You are so beautiful
