

Dig Deep Enough

Gogol Bordello

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Who would know better than us pleasure seekers
Than to meet inside of the shamanic speakers
Where past is a memory, future is an illusion
Where only the power of now
Beats the confusion We who seek long enough
Dig deep enough
Stay strong enough
The way We who seek long enough
Dig deep enough
Find diamonds in the rough
One day - today!!!! Who would know better than us freedom fighters
How to reach deep within to all igniters
Where all of the feelings you could never explain
Are coming to rescue from primordial brain We who seek long enough
Dig deep enough
Stay strong enough
The way We who seek long enough
Dig deep enough
Find diamonds in the rough
One day - fuck, today!!! We are the youths without youth problems
We are the youths without youth problems
Only the ones who get to reach stratosphere
Get to see the sun
When it's rainin down here Wo yo ho ho
Wo yo ho ho
Wo yo ho ho
One day
Today
